CURRICULAR ASPECTS

1.1 - Curricular Planning and Implementation

1.1.1 - The Institution ensures effective curriculum delivery through a well planned and documented process

The curriculum and academic calendar followed by the college is strictly in accordance with the academic calendar prescribed by the affiliated university. A well-structured teaching strategy is followed to facilitate optimum learning and it is recorded in systematic manner.

1.1.2 - The institution adheres to the academic calendar including for the conduct of Continuous Internal Evaluation (CIE)

The academic calendar is very useful document, which contains the tentative dates of: internal and external semester examinations, co-curricular and extra-curricular activities, end of term and vacation period, to guide the teachers and students. The students are informed well in advance about the deadline for assignment submissions, dates for class tests and presentations, as well as their final internal assessment marks. Criteria for assessment is also shared with the students. They are encouraged to seek guidance from teachers during the designated tutorial slots or the latter's free time. The mentor-ward periods are created specially to supplement this kind of academic framework with the extra academic support that the students might require. For the purpose of conducting Continuous Internal Evaluation, teachers prepare their schedule of teaching, class tests and assignments in accordance with their allotted time table keeping the academic calendar and planned co-curricular activities of the college in mind. Multiple assessments are taken, with the aim of allowing the students to incorporate suggestions offered by the teacher, thereby making learning a continuum and creating various opportunities for the students to succeed. The institution's approach is reoriented to suit the learner's pace, ensuring the mitigation of any pressure on the students. For transparency of functioning, both the University and the college academic calendars are placed on the college website.

INSTITUTIONAL VALUES AND BEST PRACTICES

7.1 - Institutional Values and Social Responsibilities

7.1.1 - Measures initiated by the Institution for the promotion of gender equity during the year

Metas Adventist College is focused to support high-quality, advanced education and to guarantee gender equality for women's empowerment.

Through extracurricular events including street plays, poster displays, guest lectures, workshops, seminars, and counselling, among other things, the institution encourages gender sensitization. Periodically, awareness campaigns about topics such as the value of human rights, the role of women in domestic issues, and cyber security issues pertaining to the safety and security of female employees and students are held. The college offers staff and students safety and security features such security arrangements and campus-wide CCTV surveillance. All strangers are screened by security personnel before being issued visitor IDs, and students are required to wear ID cards at all times.

To support students' academic, emotional, social, and cognitive growth, the school offers a dedicated counselling centre and an effective mentorship programme. There are various levels of personal counselling offered to students. Boys' and girls' restrooms are located in different areas. For the safe and hygienic disposal of sanitary napkins, restrooms are equipped with vending machines and disposal machines.

To ensure the safety and well-being of both students and staff, the institution established the following committees in accordance with University/UGC regulations: the Institution Grievance Redressal Committee, Anti-Ragging, Sexual Harassment Prevention Cell, Students' Disciplinary Committee, Women Welfare & SC / ST Students Welfare Committee, Safety & Disaster Management Committee, and Mentoring Programme.

7.1.3 - Describe the facilities in the Institution for the management of the following types of degradable and non-degradable waste (within 200 words) Solid waste management Liquid waste management Biomedical waste management E-waste management Waste recycling system Hazardous chemicals and radioactive waste management

Waste management and recycling are prioritised at Metas Adventist College, and both academic and extracurricular programmes are designed to support this philosophy.

Solid Waste Management

Paper, plastic, and canteen garbage are the three categories of solid waste generated on campus.

The garbage is managed through the following methods:

- a) Using one-sided printed paper for internal communication;
- b) There are two different kinds of rubbish bins available on campus for bio-degradable and non-biodegradable waste.

Liquid Waste Management

The liquid waste generated in the college includes effluents from washrooms and Academic blocks. This liquid waste is discharged through a sewage system.

E-Waste Management

- As an inventive way to highlight waste management practises, students use discarded compact discs and other disposable, non-hazardous materials as decorations during college festivals.
- When appropriate, it is also sold, donated, or reused.

Waste Recycling

The college as per now does not recycle any form of waste specifically. But it is committed to institute recycling practices for waste management.

- Producing fewer wastes: Students use their supplies, such as paper, pencils, and pens, to the fullest extent possible and generate the fewest wastes possible

Hazardous Chemicals And Radioactive Waste Management

There is no hazardous chemical or radioactive waste produce in the institution.

7.1.8 - Describe the Institutional efforts/initiatives in providing an inclusive environment i.e., tolerance and harmony towards cultural, regional, linguistic, communal socioeconomic and other diversities (within 200 words).

As a learning environment, we have a diverse population of students from various socioeconomic backgrounds. These pupils have a variety of linguistic origins and are from different parts of the nation. The college provides them with the opportunity and space to improve, acquire, explore, and engage in every activity to the best of their abilities while showing the utmost respect for their diverse histories and backgrounds. The college treats all of its students equally while interacting with them. Although English is the primary language of instruction, if a student has trouble grasping a concept, the instructor will go above and beyond to help them understand it in a comparable more understandable language. To help students realise their responsibilities to society, the institution organised two contribution drives and two charity drives this year.

Metas Adventist College believes in unity in diversity. Towards this, the college has pro-actively made efforts to promote diversity. Inclusive spaces are created across the campuses for the students to meet and greet each other. The college also promotes and supports students from different linguistic background by associating a suitable mentor to each student. This helps majority of the students from underprivileged backgrounds and alien culture to take the advantage and participate with other students in various activities.

7.1.9 - Sensitization of students and employees of the Institution to the constitutional obligations: values, rights, duties and responsibilities of citizens

The college conducts an orientation program at the beginning of the first year to introduce the students to their right and responsibilities. The college expects responsible behavior and ethical practices from the students and the staff. The Masters course syllabus includes the subjects like Labor Laws and Business Ethics as compulsory subject. The under graduate courses includes business law and Environmental Science as compulsory subjects to familiarize the students with their social responsibilities.

To introduce the feeling of social responsibility, the college takes initiatives such as charity drives and donation drives.

In keeping with the Constitutional Responsibilities of preserving and caring for the Environment, the college celebrated Environmental Day, under which tree plantation was done in the college premises.

All the mandatory committees like Anti Ragging Cell, Women Harassment Cell are activated and functional.

Week of Ethics, a value creating initiative is incorporated in the academic schedule.

Dress code and Code of Conduct for students and teachers are implemented to maintain uniformity and equality.

To protect the violation of rights, the college follows an Open Door Policy wherethe students can directly connect with the Vice President Student Affairs and share their grievance.

7.1.11 - Institution celebrates / organizes national and international commemorative days, events and festivals

The aim of celebrating the national festivals is to create an environment where the students come together with similar sentiments of national unity and humanism.

In a given academic year the college commemorates as many days of significance as possible. The series of activities to commemorate includes the meaningful celebration of the birth and death anniversaries of the prominent figures as well as the great leaders of the country to inculcate various values.

Another outcome of marking days of national and international importance is the awareness that is created by the commemoration of those days.

With a view of raising awareness that is created among the students and the staff members celebrated different days like Gandhi Jayanti , World Environmental Day, International Yoga Day, International day on Eradication of Poverty. National Days like Independence Day and Republic Day are marked by mandatory hoisting of the flag.

7.2 - Best Practices

7.2.1 - Describe two best practices successfully implemented by the Institution as per NAAC format provided in the Manual.

State at least two institutional best practices

METAS believes that its purpose is not just to help its students secure a degree but to also prepare the students to become global citizens with inclination to face any challenge in his life at any time. The college constantly endeavors to shape their attitude and holistic personality to help them emerge as remarkable individuals when they move out of the portals of this institution.

With a deep understanding of students and faculty mindsets gleaned over a decade, the college has devised a set of practices to promote a culture of continuous learning both amongst its students and staff. These measures help them immensely in facing the future challenges in their lives.
